Wrong-Way Drunken Driver Arrested by Deputy on Freeway 28th Wrong-Way Driver This Year

Milwaukee, WI – A Milwaukee County sheriff's deputy responded to a 911 call yesterday at 4:00 a.m., reporting a motorist driving southbound in the northbound lanes of I-94 at W. Edgerton Avenue, and into a construction area in the Mitchell Interchange. Construction workers were able to get the driver to stop.

Deputies arrested the operator, Daniel F. Bostedt, age 56, for OWI-1st and 2nd Degree Recklessly Endangering Safety (RES). Bostedt could not remember where he got on the freeway, and tested a .14 PBT on the intoximeter. He was conveyed to the County Correctional Facility-Central and faces up to ten years in prison on the RES charge.
